IN MEMORY OF FRED STANLEY VALENTINE

Fred Stanley Valentine, 80, of Henrico, entered eternal rest Sunday, June 12, 2022 at his residence. He was born in Chase City, Virginia on September 26, 1941 to the late John & Mary Lena Valentine. At an early age, Fred joined Concord Baptist Church where he maintained his membership. He attended Mt. Olive Baptist in Glen Allen. Fred received his early education in the Mecklenburg County schools & graduated from West End High School in 1960. Later, he furthered his education, receiving a B.S. degree from Knoxville College and a M.S. degree from Virginia Commonwealth University. Fred started his career in education. He was a teacher, coach & administrator in Pittsylvania Co. Public Schools, Chatham, VA, and a coach, teacher & administrator in King William Co. Public Schools in King William, VA. He worked as an Asst. Supervisor at the VA Dept. of Education, Pupil Transportation Service & as Director of Transportation for Hanover Co. Public Schools in Ashland until his retirement in 2002. Fred wore many hats. After retirement, Fred served as a Consultant of Transportation for the State of Virginia. He served as President of VAPT. He was a dedicated member of the West End High School Alumni Association, having served as the President of the WEHS National Alumni Association and most recently as President of the Richmond Chapter & Advisor of the National Association. Fred loved people & it was easy for people to love & admire him. No one was a stranger to Fred. He opened his heart to everyone he met. He loved watching sports particularly, football & basketball. Left to cherish his memory are his devoted wife of 55 years, Carolyn B. Valentine; devoted son, Fred Sterling Valentine; loving grandson, Fred Sterling Valentine, Jr.; devoted sister, Johnsie V. Davis (John); brother, Robert Valentine; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, & extended family. Fred will truly be missed. We will always cherish the memories of Fred Stanley Valentine.
