

VIRGINIA ASSOCIATION FOR PUPIL TRANSPORTATION
2016 CLYDE W. MORRIS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

BRIAN DAVID SCHOORENS
Hampton City

With career plans of becoming a lawyer, Brian will be attending the University of Virginia this fall.

Strongly positioning himself academically while attending Kecoughtan High School, he was a member of several school honor societies, including the National Honor Society, The Math Honor Society, where he served as President and the History Honor Society, where he served as Vice President - both his senior year.

He lettered in his school's marching band, playing the alto saxophone and serving as section leader his senior year; served on the Principal's Advisory Committee and was active in the Drama Club where he won a Best Actor Award in 2013.

Brian was a candidate for Lt. Governor during the 2015 Virginia Boy's State and participated for four years in the Model United Nations Program, an educational simulation where students learn about diplomacy and international relations as well as public speaking, debating, critical thinking and leadership.
